Cultural Performances

Impression · Third Sister Liu

The venue for the performance is at the juncture of the Lijiang and Tianjia rivers in Yangshuo County, being the largest real landscape performance in the world. Zhang Yimou, a famous Chinese film director, is one of the chief directors of the performance.

The performance venue is on a two-square-kilometer water area of the Lijiang River, surrounded by 12 peaks, forming a scenic outdoor setting. Thanks to the creation of an environment with artistic lighting and unique mist, the whole venue is like a fairyland. The hidden sound equipment ingeniously uses the echo that the mountain peaks form to

Urban Attractions

Reed Flute Cave

Reed Flute Cave, an important scenic spot in Guilin, is located at Guangming Hill in Reed Flute Road, about seven kilometers from the city proper. Its name comes from the reed that grows near the entrance of the cave and can be used to make excellent flutes.

The Reed Flute Cave Scenic Area mainly consists of Guangming Hill, Reed Flute Cave and Fragrant Lotus Pond, and the main tourist attractions gather around Reed Flute Cave.

Reed Flute Cave is about 250 meters in depth, and the sightseeing route is about 500 meters long. The cave embraces a large number of stalactites and stalagmites, many of which are formed into intriguing shapes, such as bamboo shoots, curtains, pillars and flowers, forming several dozens of scenic spots, such as "Rising Sun over the Lion Forest," "Pagoda-shaped Pines Covered with Snow," "Hanging Waterfalls," "Pagodas Entwined with Dragons," "Mountain City in a Distance," "Dragon Palace in the East Sea," "Enjoying the Beautiful Scenery at the Cloud Terrace," "Listening to the Flute Music in a Quiet Environment," "Two Pillars Supporting Heaven," "Lions Bidding Farewell to Guests," etc.

The Reed Flute Cave Scenic Area has been open to the public for more than 40 years, and has received several hundred state leaders from different countries in the world.
